The Life And History of Walt Disney

By the age of thirty, Walt Disney had become a well known public figure. His ticket to fame began as a creator of Mickey Mouse. The distinguished mouse's voice was translated into many languages and he soon became famous throughout the world. Disney's charm and personality made him a distinguished person known to all as a relaxed, even-tempered person who knew what people enjoyed. His face is memorable to all and the sense of determination was apparent even in his most relaxed poses. He believed in his own instincts and ensured that plans were carried out as they had been started originally.

He was often underestimated by his rivals and always proved them wrong with his unique successfullness. He never believed in gimmicks to catch the eyes of the public. He had a special purpose for creating each and everything he ever did. He used the cartoons and their animations to bring forth simple, understandable valuable.

The man and his dreams have made life more enjoyable for many and have spoken the language of laughter to all. The legend of Walt Disney will continue to do so for years to come!

"We have never lost our faith in family entertainment—stories that make people laugh, stories about historic characters and events, and stories about animals . . . We're not out to make a fast dollar with gimmiks. We're interested in doing things that are fun—in bringing pleasure and especially laughter to people."

The "Wonderful World of Trinity" was decided as the theme for the 1982-1983 Trinhian in May of 1982. The summer of 1982 marked the 10th anniversary of Disney World. Also, October 23, 1982 was the date of the opening of Epcot, a new section of Disney World.

The Trinhian staff has the rights to use The Wonderful World of Disney-/Trinity as a theme and would like to thank Disney Productions for allowing this honor!

TRINITY'S LIFE AND HISTORY

Trinity had some of the newspapers first published in Randolph County. Between 1897-1898, the city of Trinity, published "North Carolina Home Journal." At Trinity College, "County Life" (1890-1892), was published, "North Carolina Educational Journal" (1881-1892) were also published. Several other student newspapers were started at Trinity College but did not last long.

Before 1780, the first settlers bought land in the western area of Randolph County, which is now Trinity.

In 1779 the tax list showed 215 taxables for William Milikan's District, which is roughly Trinity. Of these taxables, approximately 25 families were a part of what became the Trinity area. On the tax list were the following famous people: John Leach, William Leach, Hugh Leach, William Leach, Hugh Leach, John Brown, William Robbins, John Reddick, Joseph Johnson, John Elder, and Alexander Smith.

The chief occupations were those of the agricultural activities. The men also held important positions in society, politics, and economics.

Trinity was an educational center until Trinity College ceased support to the High School. There were some new industries before 1900 in Trinity, such as The Trinity Broom Works, owned by Benson Parker, the Wood Milling and Manufacturing Company, opened by B. L. Lineberry and W. T. Gannaway and A. F. Eshelman cigar factory.

In 1839, the Union Institute Educational Society was established. Before this time school houses were built by landowners on their own private property for their childrens' learning, and possibly their neighbors' children.

A part of what established Trinity as being a "Wonderful World" to live in was the beautiful houses that were erected in Trinity's beginning stages. The Lewis Leach house, just one of the homes in the Trinity area was a fine example built between 1845-1847 and has been restored by the Charles Morgan family. The Trinhian Staff proudly presents the "Wonderful World of Trinity".

The 1982-83 Trinhian Staff is proud to feature some of the outstanding clubs in our surrounding area. Included in this list are just a few examples of some of the clubs. They are: Civitans, Jaycees, Kiwannis, Pilot and Rotary Clubs. Two special clubs are shown on this page.

The services in which they provide us are greatly appreciated. The time and effort that are spent are very worthwhile.

SERVICES

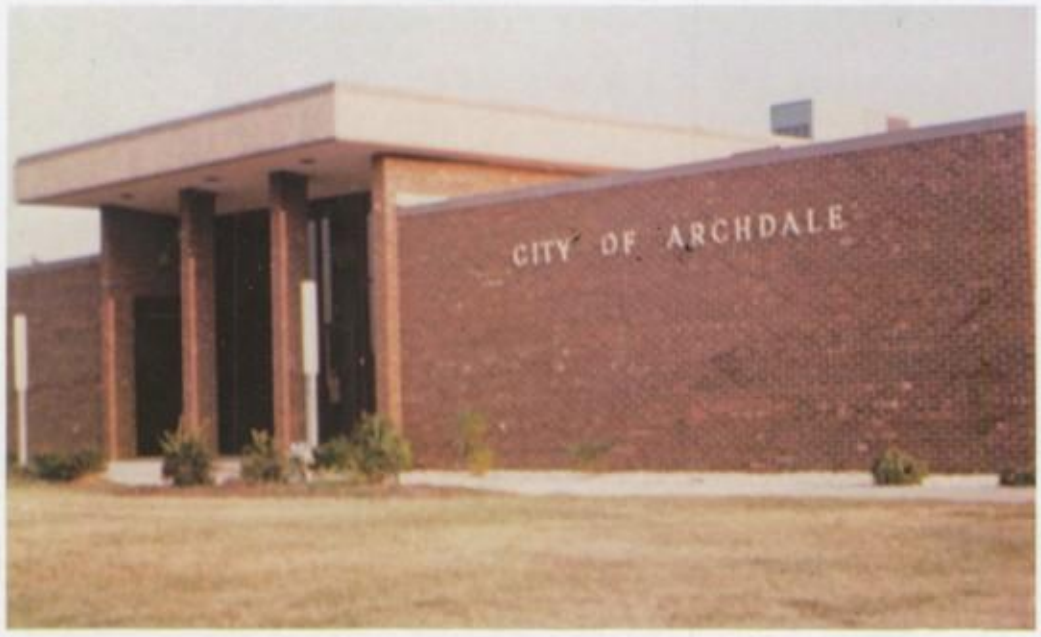
Thirty years ago, a small group of men, calling themselves Lions, vowed to give their time, talents and resources to a common effort to serve people in need. Their noble commitment was born of a vision of Melvin Jones, who looked always to that land beyond where goals grow ever larger and where the challenge to "run faster, work harder, think bigger, give more" is ever present. Since that day long ago, Lions following in their path have ever sought to turn this vision into a way of life.

Thirty years ago the Archdale-Trinity Lions Club was organized with 32 charter members. Today the club has 32 members who meet at the Archdale-Trinity Lions Den the second and fourth Mondays of each month. The major activity of Lions is assistance to the visually handicapped. They also engage in other community projects such as sponsoring a Boy Scout Troop and a Little League Baseball Team. Two of their major projects to assist the blind are their annual broom sale and the road block for White Cane. These funds are used exclusively for assistance to the visually handicapped.

The Archdale-Trinity Woman's Club's purpose is to stimulate women's interest in the Archdale-Trinity community affairs and to promote civic projects for the improvement of the community. They sponsor the Golden Age Club, Lady Bulldog Juniorettes, High School Talent Contest, and the High School and Middle School Arts Contest. The Archdale-Trinity Woman's Club perform community-wide projects and they take care of the gas bill to send children to the Carousel Theatre from grades K-3.

The officers are as follows: Susan Spell—President, Joyce Varner— First Vice President, Judy Grissom—Corresponding Sec., Peggy Wyatt—Treasurer.

Special Services of the



Archdale City Hall

The City of Archdale was incorporated in July of 1969. The first property taxes were collected in 1970. On November 17, 1973, the first ground was broken in order to build the Archdale City Hall, designed by Dean L. Spinks. The employees moved into the new building in August of 1974.

At present, the Mayor of Archdale is Lloyd Taylor. Mr. Taylor has six coucilmen to work with him when making serious decisions about the city. They are T. C. Talbert, J. C. Smith, Jr., Bruce Lance, F. H. Goins, Bill Kinley, and W. A. Aldridge. The city manager is Dalton Fulcher. His assistant is Robert Wilson. The city clerk is Maxine Renn. The "dreaded" tax collector is Nancy Burrow. The director of public utilities is Robert J. Gray. The director of public works is Vestal Hill.

Among the services provided or directed by the city hall are planning and zoning legalities. They also work closely with the Archdale Police Department. They handle the city water systems, sewer systems, and garbage services. They provide and maintain street lighting, and also handle street maintainance. The city hall is also in charge of the recreational department, and its's functions.

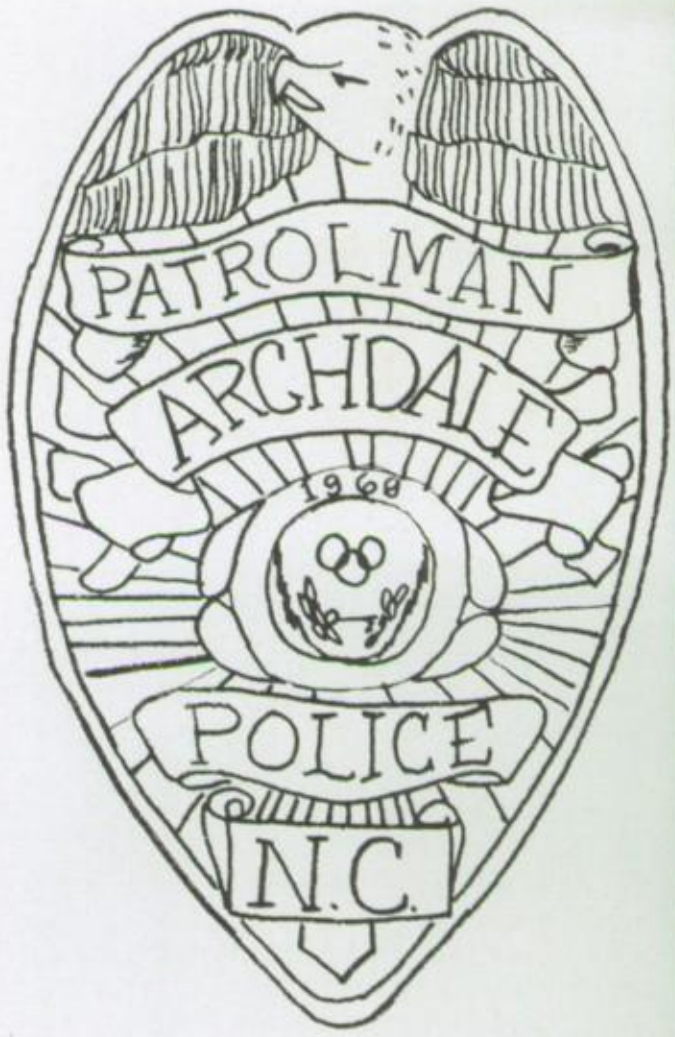
The police department of Archdale is in the City Hall building located on Balfour Drive, across from Trindale Elementary School.

Archdale-Trinity News

The Archdale-Trinity News is an affiliate of the High Point Enterprise but has separate editorial offices. It was created because of the requests of the Mayor and City Councilmen, who indicated a need for local coverage.

The paper covers all school board meetings, city council meetings, advisory council meetings, County Commissioner meetings and area athletic events.

Service by this newspaper has been rendered for the past four and one-half years to the Archdale, Trinity, Allen Jay, Hillsville, Sophia, Glenola and Cedar Square areas.



Archdale Police Department

The Police Department in the city of Archdale is located on Balfour Drive, in the same building as the City Hall. The Chief of Police is Mr. Darrell L. Arney. Mr. Arney has been in service to our community for 1½ years, and has done well in protecting us. Other members of the police department are Richard Johnson, Personnel Sergeant, and Howard Conard, Investigations Sergeant. The Police Department has nine full-time officers and twelve reserve officers.

Some special classes offered to the public cover areas in Drug Prevention, Crime Prevention, and Self Defense.

In a special booklet published by the police department, much information is provided on the prevention and abuse of drugs in our area. It explains the warning signs and the effects of drug abuse on our children and community. It states that the number of abusers is increasing steadily and even reaches into our elementary school systems. Still, the police department is working to decrease the flow of drugs. One means is the publication of "Before it's too late". It may be obtained from the police department or call (919) 434-3134.

Archdale - Trinity Area

Guil-Rand Fire Department

The Archdale-Trinity area is served by one of the finest and best equipped fire departments in North Carolina. The Guil-Rand Fire Department was organized and founded in 1950 by the Summer's Hodgin Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 9899.

The first fire-chief was R. D. Allman, followed by Bodenheimer, Clyde Wilkerson, Garland Weir, Tom Skeen, and the present chief Howard E. Wood.

In 1976, the Mendenhall sub-station was built. In 1978, the Hillsville sub-station was added.

Currently, Guil-Rand boasts a fleet of fifteen emergency vehicles including pumpers, tankers, brush trucks, and squads; those being the rescue vehicles. The fire department covers an area of about 150 miles, taking in the Archdale, Trinity, Mendenhall, Hillsville, and Cedar Square areas.

The Guil-Rand Fire Department is comprised of seventy-six total members, nine of these being career men. These men are Chief H. E. Woods, Deputy Chief R. C. Fruitt, Assistant Chief Ronald White, Captain Frank Crotts, Captain Steve Woodell, and firefighters: Stacy Farlow, Gary Hill, Russell Doane, and Danny Campbell. Each station has 20 to 30 volunteers, and two men on duty twenty-four hours a day.

The general public is not aware of all the voluntary civic acts provided by the firemen. Services include:

Testing hydrents
Installing new "dry" hydrents
Pre-planning industrial sprinkler systems
Fire prevention in schools
Inspection of public schools
Scheduling of school fire drills
CPR instruction classes
First-Aid instruction
Instalation of smoke detectors in elderly and handicapped homes
Inspection of day care and family care facilities
Issuing forestry burning permits

Respond to fire and medical assistance calls

Member participation in regularly scheduled training programs.

Archdale Public Library

On November 28, 1972, the Archdale City Council established the Archdale Public Library and by February 27, 1973, had appointed a Library Board of Trustees composed of several outstanding community members.

The books were processed at the county library offices, while shelves were made by Trinity High School students. Mrs. Marian Tillman was employed as librarian and open house occured on June 3, 1973.

After Mrs. Tillman's resignation, Mrs. Hazel Hancock was appointed to the position until December 31, 1974. After being moved from Balfour Dr. in March of 1979, it's home has been on South Main Street.

On October 11, 1982 Mrs. Brenda Ellis assumed duties as librarian.

The hours for the Archdale Library are 11 a.m.-5 p.m. on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Wednesday and 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday. Closed Mondays.

Trinity Post Office

On February 15, 1859, the small wooden building beside Trinity College opened as the first post office in the Trinity area. Mr. Martin S. Leach was the postmaster at that time.

The Trinity branch post office serves approximately 12,000 people, and covers an area from highway 62, at the Archdale Road intersection, to highway 64, and Flint Hill Road to Finch Farm Road. An Archdale office also serves our area.

DAYTIME

August 25—The first day of school marks the beginning of everyone's tomorrow.

From 8:30 to 3:03 the mighty Bulldogs were all in hot, stuffy classrooms trying to devise plans to make the days go by more quickly. With the exception of lunch, the HIGHPOINTS in everyones day were Break, and the time between classes when one could spend time with his girlfriend or her boyfriend. But, before greetings were barely spoken, the bell would ring and each would trudge back to class.

Freshman looked forward to the end of the year so they would not be considered the babies any longer, and the sophomores patiently waited with anticipation the honor of being upperclassmen. All Juniors exulted in their last days of "second .best" As for the seniors, they remember . . . the laughter, the tears, the joys, the fears, the sweet memories of days gone by and the "Wonderful World of Trinity."

Kim is very excited about seeing old friends.

Breaks

"Break," the highspot of everyone's day.

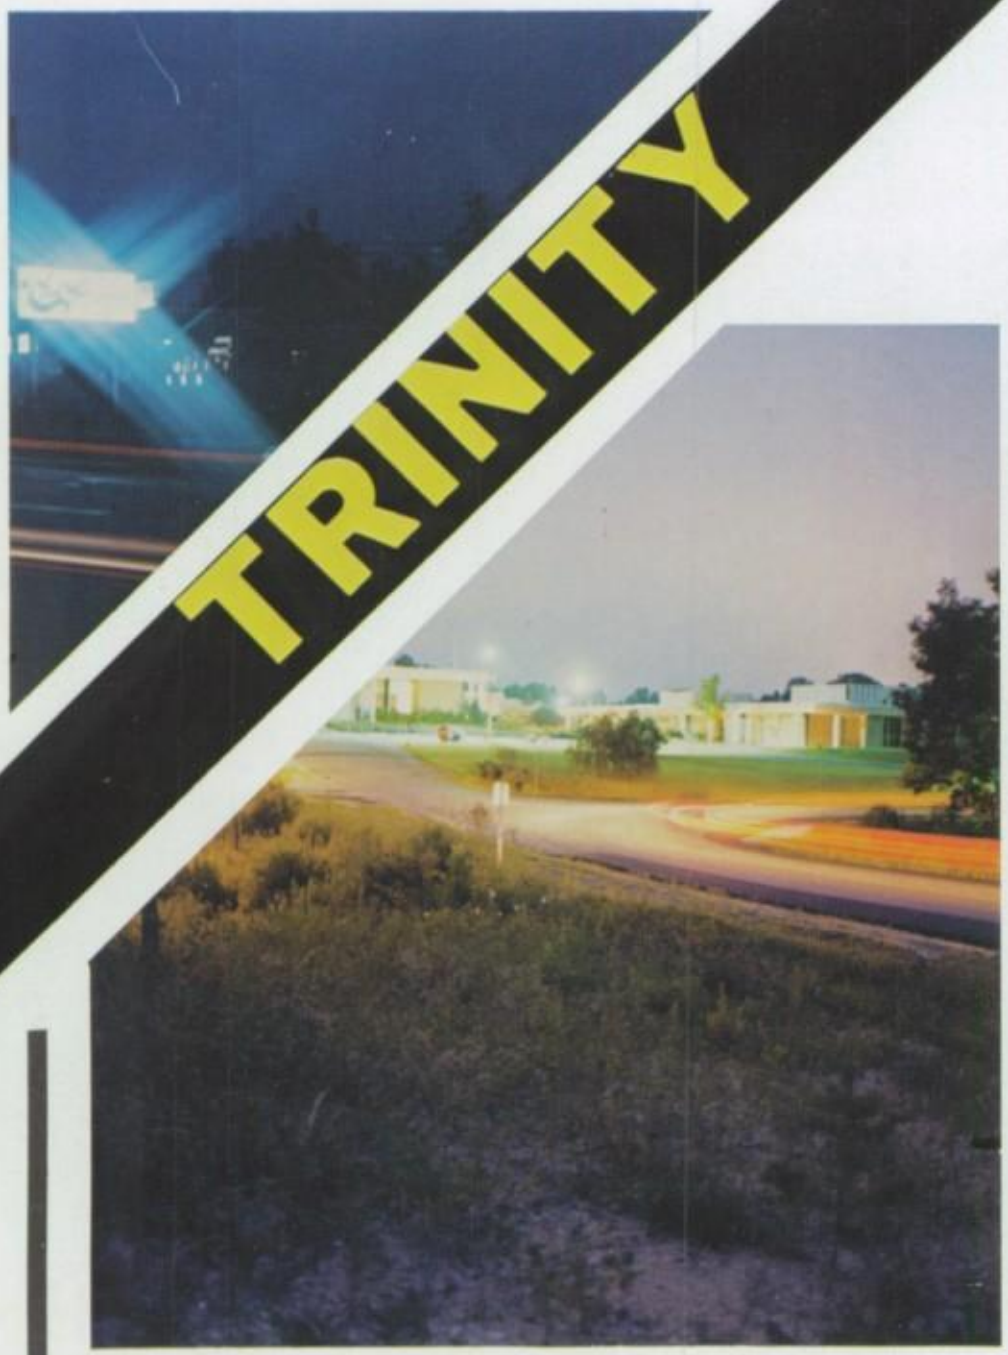
A few smiles between classes.

The library is a learning source for all interested.

Todd, J. D., and Jeff, we know what you are thinking about.

Lori and Andrea show the latest fashion.

TRINITY



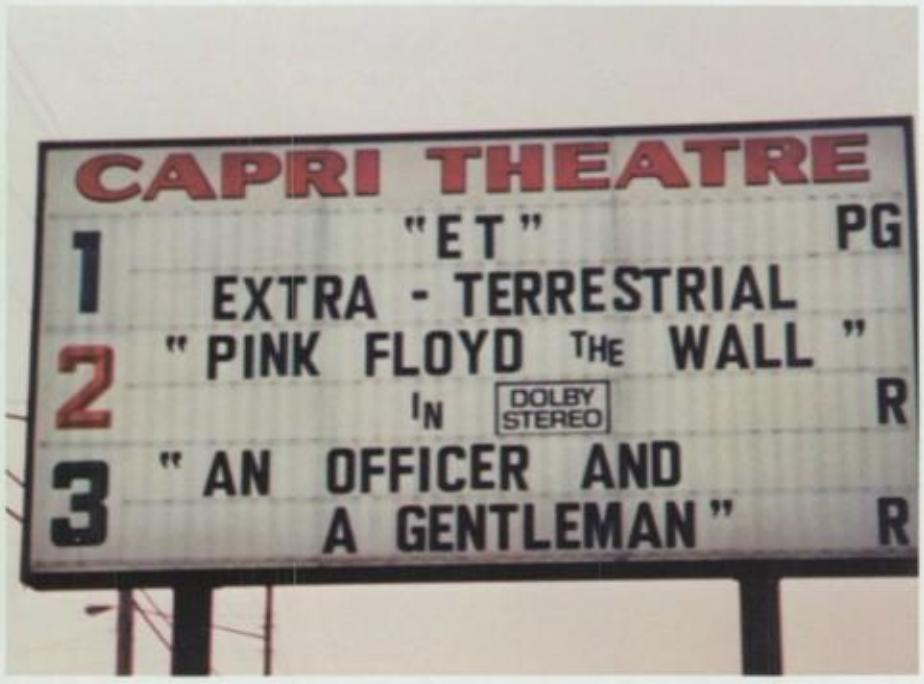
... "Fridays" ...

It had been hot all day and students anxiously awaited the 3:03 bell. That old familiar bell finally came and students poured out of the buildings and hallways. All were excited for they had big plans for hours that soon followed. Soon they hopped in their cars, and sped away. This was the beginning of their "NIGHTLIFE!"

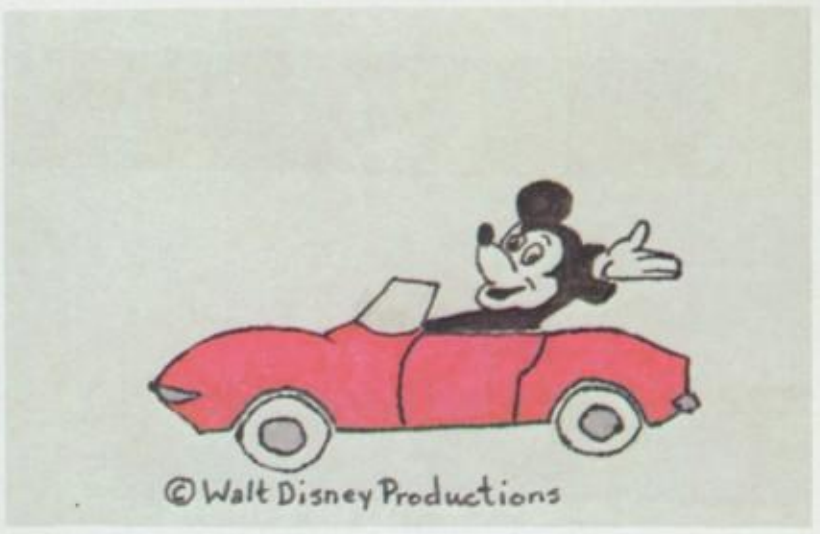
In the fall, Friday nights were devoted to our dedicated and determined football team. Teenage groups yelled and cheered with all they had, showing that THEY knew who was #1. Win or lose, this THS spirit carried on into the night. All hurried to their favorite pizza joint to celebrate. If there was nothing else, they always had at least one thing to celebrate . . . the freedom they experienced during their favorite time of the day, "NIGHTLIFE."

To some it was time to go home after eating, but to others, the night was still young! By this time a certain guy had matched up with a certain girl and they caught the late show at the Capri or just cruised the streets. For the couple that wanted to add some romanticism to their life, cruising was usually the choice. A person had never returned home and said that he did not enjoy the "Submarine Races." As the evening finally came to a close, all headed home. Although the night was through, none were depressed. Instead they changed their thoughts to plans for the following day when the next "NIGHTLIFE" would begin.

After games the pizza places all became crowded, either for pizza or for a few laughs with friends.



Falling in love with "An Officer And A Gentlemen" and visiting earth with "ET" are all part of Saturday Nightlife.



Where the Winners
Champs
Play

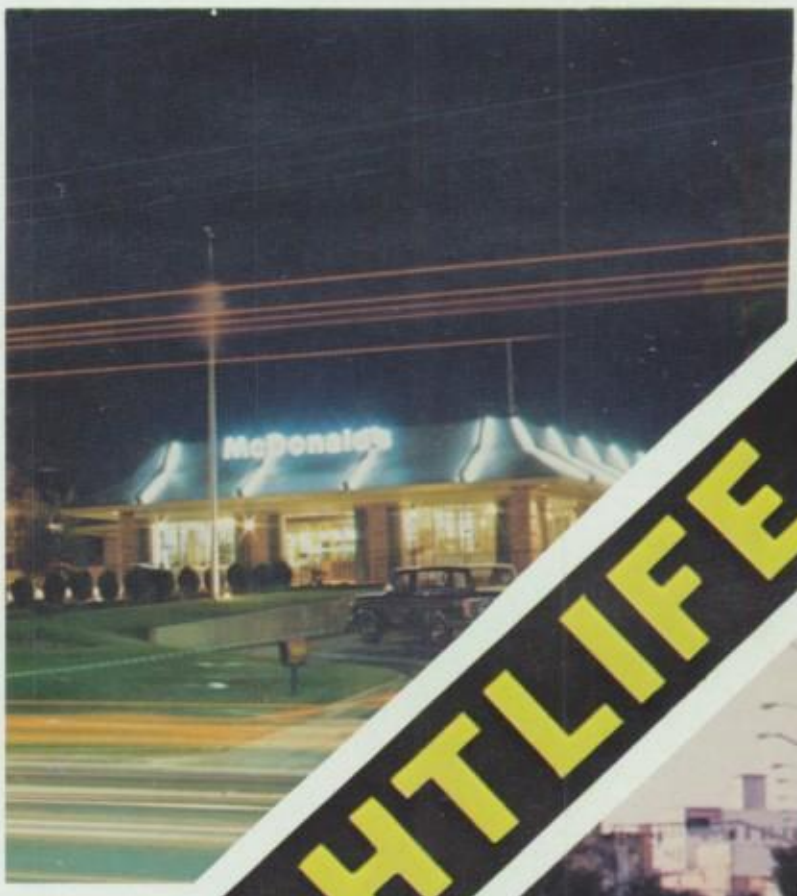
It was almost dark. Saturday night arrived. Work around the house was completed and the car was cleaned to point that it shined like new. All rejoiced because it was once again time for "NIGHTLIFE!"

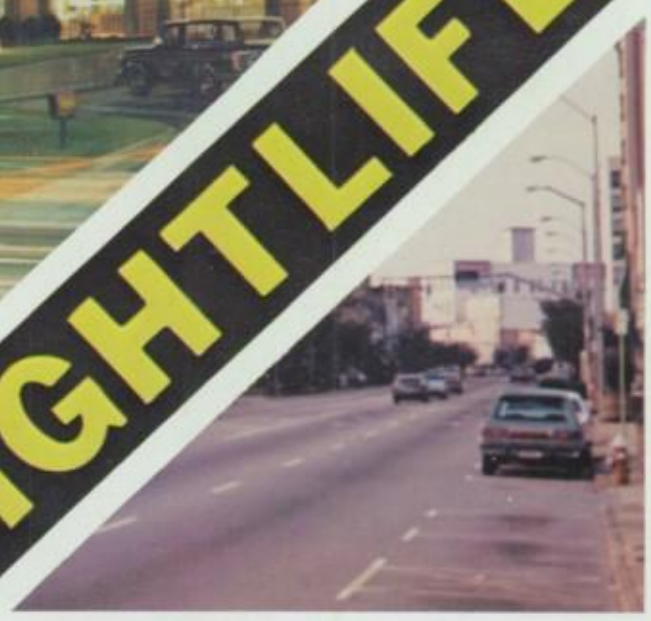
The streetlights were "lit" and the headlights came on as the hotrods hit the road. The "Streetscene" was in progress. Young faces roamed the streets and yelled to each other as cars pulled up to the stoplight, side by side. The music blared and engines roared. The lights changed to green and the youths "dragged" to the next light. The winner always smiled because he knew he was the fastest. This continued all up and down Main Street with a different car each time until they reached their favorite hang-out spots. Such places included Putt-Putt, Champs, or Brunswick. Yes, this was all a part of the "NIGHTLIFE."

Cruising, hanging-out, and an occasional drink were usually the main items on a nights agenda. Then again, others were content with a good movie, a nice meal, and a pretty girl to share the evening. The tastes may have been different but the "good times" of "NIGHTLIFE" were enjoyed just the same.

This night, like all others, had to end sometime and everyone knew that but no one worried. They knew the goodtimes had not ended and this was the best time of their life. It was their "NIGHTLIFE . . . "

It's time for a BIG MAC ATTACK!





NIGHTLIFE

...SATURDAY NIGHT LIVE"...

The 1983 Dedication of the Trinhian

The Senior Class of Trinity High School proudly dedicated it's 1983 edition of the Trinhian to a lady who has dedicated her life to young people—a person who spreads a friendly smile to everyone she meets—Miss Beverly Crotts.

Miss Crotts is a well-rounded person with a background to go with her. She attended High Point College where she received her A.B. in Education-Social Studies. She then attended UNC-Greensboro where she received her Masters. In the school year 1962-63 she joined the faculty of Trinity High School where she began her teaching career.

During her 19 years at Trinity High School, Miss Crotts has accomplished many tasks including her involvment with the Beta Club. Through her knowledge of the world, both nationally and internationally, she helped prepare all her students for the future which awaited them.

Miss Crotts has brought her love, patience, and, care to the people of Trinity High School and for this we show our appreciation by dedicating the 1983 Trinhian to her.

TOMORROWLAND

Words can never express the feeling of completing 12 years of high school and entering a world where "who knows what tomorrow brings." Tomorrowland takes the hopes and dreams of yesterday and brings them to reality.

The song "Up Where We Belong" sung by Joe Crocker and Jennifer Warens puts the feeling of tomorrow into words which every senior can relate to . . .

"Up Where We Belong"
Who knows what tomorrow brings
In a world, few hearts survive
All I know is the way I feel,
But it's real, I keep it alive.
Some hang on to used to be
Live their lives looking behind
All we have is here and now
All of our lives, all there to find
The road is long. There are mountains in our way
But we climb a step everyday
Time goes by no time to cry, life doing our alive.
Love lift us up where we belong,
Where the eagles cry on a mountain high.
Love lift us up where we belong
Up from the world we know, where the clear winds blow

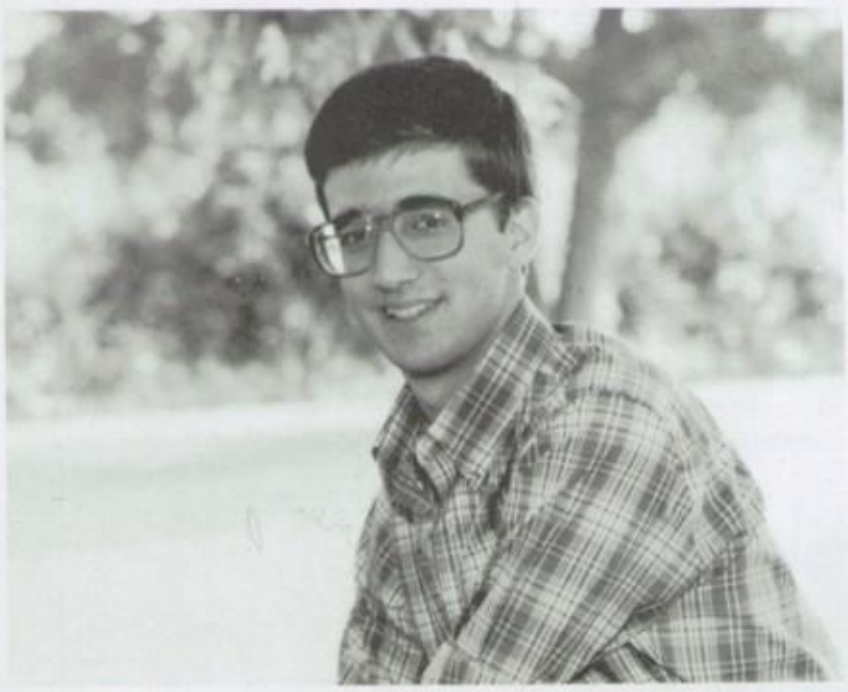
SENIOR LIFE

M-I-C-K-E-Y M-O-U-S-E, Mickey Mouse. By the late 1950's and early 60's school-kids all across the nation dreamt about being on The Mickey Mouse Show. Now, Trinity has its own Mickey Mouse Club and the Trinhian Staff proudly presents "Trinity Mouseketeers."

PRESENTING THE

ERIC DRYE—As a top student, Eric devoted much dedication to Trinity High School. He was an active member in various clubs including the Key Club for four years, Beta Club his sophomore and junior years, FCA his freshman, sophomore, and senior years, and the Leo Club his senior year. Eric also excelled on the athletic field at Trinity High School as well. Many long hours of practice were spent on the football field as a freshman, sophomore, and senior, and on the track as a freshman, junior, and senior. Eric also participated as a wrestler his senior year. The Trinity High School faculty and student body greatly appreciate what Eric contributed to our school.



HERB ANDREWS—During his four years at THS, Herb excelled in academics as well as sports. His senior class voted him "Most Intellectual" and his academic record reflected this. Being in the Beta Club his sophomore through senior years was quite an outstanding honor. Herb also served as vice-president of the Beta Club his junior year and president his senior year. Herb represented his class during his senior year on the Student Council. Other honors he participated in during his junior year included serving as a marshall and attending Boy's State. In athletics, Herb was an outstanding member of the track team for four years, and he also displayed his running abilities when he ran cross-country his senior year. He was an enthusiastic member of the Key Club and served as the treasurer his senior year. The faculty and student body of Trinity commend Herb for his excellence in academics as well as athletics.

DAVID BARNES—When the word sports comes to mind one usually associated the name David Barnes with it. During all four of his high school years, David played an important role in football at Trinity. David was a standout quarterback his sophomore, junior, and senior years, and he was a captain of the varsity football team his senior year. Along with football, he participated in baseball for four years and basketball his freshman, sophomore, and junior years. It is easy to see why David was voted "Most Athletic" by his senior class, a title he well deserved. David received such honors as being selected to attend Boy's State his junior year and representing his class in the Student Council his freshman, sophomore, and junior years. He was a member of such clubs as FCA his freshman and sophomore years, Beta Club his junior and senior years and BOSS Club, Monogram Club, and Leo Club his senior year. Special thanks to David Barnes for his outstanding leadership at THS.

LISA ALDRIDGE—As a student at Trinity High School, Lisa excelled in academics. She was voted by her senior class "Most Likely To Succeed". Lisa was tapped into the Beta Club her sophomore year, and she remained a member her junior and senior years. She also was a member of the FBLA her senior year. Lisa participated as a HOST her sophomore year and as a Peer Counselor her junior year. Her sophomore year, Lisa was elected to be a Prom Hostess for the 1981 prom. As a junior, she worked on the Prom Committee. In reward for her outstanding grades, Lisa was chosen and participated as one of the twelve Junior Marshalls during the commencement exercise in June 1982.

TOP TWELVE

DONNA SNYDER—Donna was voted "Most Spirited" by her senior class and received the DAR good-citizen award in her senior year. Her honors do not stop there. She was the homecoming representative for her class her freshman, sophomore, and junior years. This past fall Donna was crowned the 1982 Homecoming Queen. Donna was tapped into the Beta Club her sophomore year and she continued to be in the Beta Club through her senior year. She served as secretary of the Beta Club both her junior and senior years. She began her membership in the Keyettes early in her high school years and continued through her senior year. Donna became a member of the Monogram Club her sophomore year and she remained a member through her senior year. Donna also represented her class on the Student Council all four years and she presided as president her junior and senior years. Donna was honored her junior year by being chosen as a marshall and was also elected to attend Girls State. Donna began cheering her freshman year on the Junior Varsity Squad and she advanced to the Varsity Cheerleading Squad her junior and senior years. The time and effort that Donna has contributed to making Trinity High School a better school is much appreciated.

STEPHANIE BUNDY—The type of student that one would dub a 'Jack of all trades'. In her four years at Trinity, Stephanie participated in a variety of sports, clubs and activities, ranging from a basketball hero to a member of the play cast.

Stephanies' participation in volleyball for the past four years made her a definite candidate to be honored in Bulldog Pride. Her other activities included: Freshmen class vice-president, Gamboliers, Play Cast, Play Committee, Prom Committee, Softball, the BETA Club, the Keyettes and the Juniorettes. In her senior year, Stephanie was chosen to be Historian of the BETA Club, and she was also chosen to be the Hospitality Chairman for the Juniorettes.

KAREN LUCUS—She was voted "Most Dependable" by the senior class of 1983, and they obviously were well aware of what they were doing. As president of the Student Council, Karen did a fantastic job of leading, guiding, advising, and improving the student body of Trinity High. When Karen was not busy with student council, she was working out and practicing with the basketball and volleyball teams. Karen was a member of the basketball team during all four of her years at Trinity High School. Not only was she an active team member, but she was also chosen captain of the girls basketball team during her junior and senior years. Karen was a member of the volleyball team during her last three years at Trinity and was chosen team captain her senior year. She was also a member of the track team her freshman year. Aside from sports and Student Council, Karen participated in FCA. She was a fire marshall and an active member of the Monogram Club of which she was chosen secretary her junior year.

KELLY WYATT—One of those students that every school takes pride in. Through her years at Trinity High, Kelly proved herself worthy of the respect of many of her fellow classmates, under classmen and teachers bestowed upon her. She excelled scholastically and was a member of the BETA Club for the past three years. Kelly was also voted best dressed by her senior class and her daily appearance proved her well deserving of such an honor. A bright, pretty outfit and a fresh smile were Kelly's clothing for any day.

Band, BOSS, French, Science, and Juniorettes were among the clubs Kelly participated in during the past four years.

Kelly was chosen to be a page for the North Carolina governor and was also selected as a member of peer counseling.

One would think that if a male student in high school spent almost every waking hour of his life sweating, training and punishing himself for football season every year then he would not have any time left for school work. Well, this was definitely not the case for WAYNE MENDENHALL. Wayne played football during all four of his years at Trinity High, and was team captain his senior year. He was in the BETA Club for three of those four years and was treasurer his junior and senior years.

Wayne was the type of student that always performed to the best of his ability. He was not only athletic and intelligent, but also was well liked by his classmates. Wayne's senior class all agreed he will have a very successful future, for they voted him 'Most Likely to Succeed'.

Wayne's other activities at THS included the track team, treasurer of his junior class, Prom Committee, the BOSS Club, FCA, the Key Club, the Monogram Club, and the Junior Civitans.

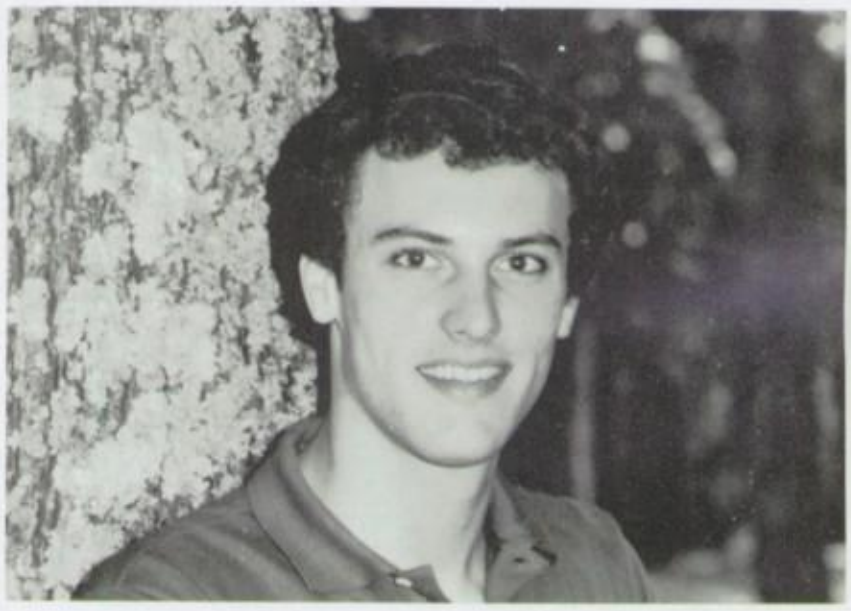
SANDY SLAUGHTER—Leadership, intelligence and support are all words that describe Sandy. She was very dependable and her teachers counted on her if they needed anything.

Sandy was active in a variety of clubs, sports and activities at Trinity High. She was a member of the BOSS Club, and the French Club during her freshmen year. In her sophomore year, Sandy was not only a member of the French Club, but she also participated on the track team. As a junior at Trinity, Sandy was an active participant of the Prom Committee. She attended an economic seminar and was a fire marshal, and a member of the HOSA Club. In her final year at Trinity, Sandy was the secretary of the HOSA Club, and a member of the Keyettes and the Science Club. During Sandy's last three years of high school, she excelled scholastically and was therefore chosen a member of the BETA Club. She was also the secretary of the BETA Club during her senior year.

SCOTT BRYSON—Intelligent and bright are all words we associated with Scott Bryson. Over the years, Scott showed his academic abilities especially in the NFL. He represented Trinity for the past four years in the National Forensics League and in doing so he received many honors. His junior year he received his most outstanding honor—competing in the Nationals at San Francisco. Scott deserves a lot of recognition for reaching this goal. Along with this, Scott also found time to participate in the Science Club his freshmen, junior and senior years, the Key Club his sophomore through his senior years, and the French Club his sophomore year.

While a freshmen, Scott took on the task of playing Football on the J.V. team.

Scott definitely accomplished much while attending THS and for this reason we THANK YOU Scott Bryson.



LORI FRYE—One of the most talented seniors at Trinity High School. Lori was a very active participant in the Blue Crew, as well as the BETA Club, Keyettes, and the Juniorettes. Lori was a member of the band during all four of her years at THS, and was Drum Major her junior and senior years. Her activities in band included Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble and Percussion Ensemble. She attended the All-County Band in ninth and tenth grade and won the flute duet and the percussion ensemble. She attended All-State Band her junior year. Lori was voted 'Most Talented' by her fellow classmates, and finished second runner-up but most talented in the 1982 Junior Miss Pageant of Randolph County.

Lori was a member of the BETA Club and Keyettes during her sophomore, junior and senior years and she was Historian of BETA Club and President of Keyettes in her senior year. Lori's other activities included track, Play Cast, Play Committee, Guidance assistant, High Point Youth Council, FCA, and Juniorettes.

BULLDOG PRIDE

Pride is a word that is used to describe students' feelings when they put their hearts into something that takes all they can give, and in return they receive honor. This must be what these people feel because they have truly devoted themselves to this school. Even though it's true that only they can know the hardwork that has been put forth, everyone knows the pride felt by all because of their achievements and goals, reached and set in the past four years. These people are the perfect examples of what Bulldog Pride is all about!

SUPERSUPERSUPER

Most Athletic: David Barnes/Karyn Kennedy.

There is not much one can say about super athletes, when their actions say it all. Karyn and David are Trinity's Lifeline!

Most Likely to Succeed: Wayne Mendenhall/ Lisa Aldridge.

Money talks, and that's some heavy discussion. It looks like Wayne and Lisa are a very succeeding pair already!

Best Smile: Steve Davis/Lori East. Say cheese. Wow, what a smile. Not only are Lori's and Steve's smile warm and brilliant, they are too.

Most Bashful: Scott Arnold/Lisa Delzatto. Don't call me, I'll call you, I think, well maybe, probably, no I don't think so, go ahead and call me.

SUPERSUPERSENIOR

Biggest Flirt: Craig Steele/Kim Ward. Warning: High Explosives. Do not shake. TRY to keep at room temperature.

Most Intellectual: Herb Andrews/Karen Miller. Good grades are hard to come by. Herb and Karen make it look, "easy".

Most Mischievous: J.D. Peace/B.J. Olson. J.D. and B.J. are always up to something. They both think work is for the birds, but these two can't fly.

Memory Book

I have an old and faded book that means a lot to me. It keeps me well informed of all that used to be. It holds a list of voices, a faint but treasured vow. Oh, there's a page of sadness; I'll tear it out right now. There's a page of sunshine etched in winter snow. On every page a little rain that made the flowers grow. There are many pages filled with love, often there I pause and look. Though other things may fade away I'll always have my Memory Book.

Author:

Baxter Tucker

Fire Marshals

At the end of every year, different students, usually Juniors and Seniors, volunteer to become a fire marshal.

Mr. Morgan picks and assigns these people to different areas of the school for them to monitor during fire drills. Their job is to double check that all doors and windows are closed.

This is a job only for responsible people and "the Wonderful World of Trinity" was shown when these people volunteered. The fire marshals did a tremendous job this year.

Guidance Helpers

The workers in the Guidance office are important people to Mrs. Robbins, Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Kennerly, and Mrs. Carrigan. The guidance counselors would not be able to make it through a day without the help of these people.

THS STUDENT COUNCIL

THE STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS ARE: President: Karen Lucas, Vice President: Charles Owens, Treasurer: Pam Rabon, Secretary: Vanessa Elliott.

The 1982-1983 Student Council started the year off great. They greeted the Freshmen Class showing them the "Wonderful World of Trinity."

On the first day of school, the Student Council treated the students with their hard work, the School Handbook. Many people, including Pres-dent Karen Lucas, spent many long hours getting the handbook ready to give to the students on August 27.

In October, the Student Council sold spirit chains during Homecoming '82. Each day of the week students dressed in a different way. Homecoming was a success and it was because of the Student Council.

Their next big project was the collection of money for Christmas presents for the needy kids in the Archdale—Trinity area. They also collected food from the students, to give to our community. The Talent Show had many acts with Ginger Bryson and Keith McDowell taking first place.

Other activities sponsored by the Student Council were the Valentine's Dance, in February, and the Crazy Olympics, in the spring.

Bulldog

Putting together a newspaper is a big task. Many hours were spent by the Bulldog Tales Staff to put together a worthy and reliable paper. The newspaper was also a source of gossip and secrets about students, faculty members and administrators. The Mickey Mouse Mouth was the highlight of each paper.

Every organization must have goals. One goal achieved by the newspaper staff was the focus of teachers in the paper. Students were able to get closer to the teachers because of these papers. The biggest accomplishment of the Bulldog Tales was their ability to teach students to take pride in Trinity High. A special thanks to the newspaper staff and Mrs. Allred. Without the VOLUNTEER work of Mrs. Allred a newspaper at Trinity High would not be possible.

Cathy Spencer, Kay Wilson, and Sharon Lambeth brighten all our hard working days in annual class.

There's more to making an annual than just laying out pictures. The process of creating an annual such as the Trinhian begins in the summer when the cover is chosen and contents of the annual are decided. Once school was in session, the annual staff meet each day fifth period. The first month of school, we were instructed on how to draw out final sheets, to type "type sheets," and to put our creative minds in a good purpose. The work had really just begun, for still ahead of us were 240 incompleted pages that had to be completed and shipped to the company by February. Each page of this edition of the Trinhian was brought to you through the love of our hearts and we sincerely hope that you—the student body—will treasure it always.

Beverly Peace and Toni Burchette spent many long hours at the typewriter preparing type sheets for shipment.

The editors and secretary are always hard at work making sure the annual is the best it can be.

82-83 BLUE CREW

The 1982 marching season was a long, grueling experience beginning on August 2, and ending on November 1. In this three month period, our Marching Blue Crew practiced five days a week, before attending bandcamp at Oakridge Military Academy in Greensboro. Once school began, the Blue Crew practiced three nights a week, played at pep rallys, and marched at Friday's home football games. At away football games, a pep band was supplied to boost team spirit.

All the hard work paid off during October competitions when the Trinity High School Marching Blue Crew went into competition on October 2, 1982. Our mighty Blue Crew marched away from the Northwest Guilford contest with four first place trophies including best flagline, best marching and maneuvering, best general effects, and first place in class AA. They also received a superior rating.

The next contest was on October 16 at the Central North Carolina Band Festival held at Alamance High School in Elon College. Band members took first place hornline, first place flagline, second place rifleline, second place drum majors, first place in Class AA competition, a superior rating, and the coveted award of "Band of the Day."

The final contest of the season was held October 30 at Sanford in Lee County. The Blue Crew won an honorable superior rating trophy. This ended the regular marching season.

Further activities for the Blue Crew included the Thomasville, High Point, and Archdale parades. The band won awards for best participating marching band and best colorguard.

The Land of Students

Although no two students are exactly alike, they all have one trait in common—they each hold a special part in forming the student body of Trinity High, a characteristic which all can be proud of!

THE MAGIC OF A QUEEN

"Camelot" was the setting and theme of the 1982 Miss Trinity Pageant. Held on April 30, 1982, a total of thirty-one girls competed for the special title of Miss Trinity.

A usual tradition of the pageant continued with two categories for competition, casual wear and evening gown. The judges based their scoring on general appearance and poise. The girls chose outfits that best showed their personality and style.

The show started off with the contestants in casual wear. Then the girls "shined" in their most glamorous evening wear. Styles ranged from glittering sparkles to delicate lace. Afterwards, the judges were put into privacy so they could make that all important decision. After the judges had chosen the semi-finalists, the six girls were announced. Each contestant held her breath as Pam Davis, Hope Smith, Melinda Stanley, Angel Dumbloskie, Cindy Patrum, and Karyn Kennedy were called. Soon, the reigning queen, DeAnn Hobson, was called to the stage to crown the new Miss Trinity. Karyn Kennedy was chosen as second runner-up, and Cindy Patrum was chosen as first runner-up. Pam Davis, a senior of the class of 1982, was soon announced by Mr. Edward Hayes, the Master of Ceremonies. Pam Davis held that special magic that is required to be a queen, the Queen of Camelot and the Queen of Trinity.

Miss Trinity, Pam Davis, received a dozen red roses, a portrait from Nelson Studios, and a Revere Bowl.

Sitting or standing, a smiling Pam Davis shows her happiness of being crowned the New Miss Trinity.

Anticipation before Karen is named second runner-up.

Julie Brown poses in her evening gown while the Camelot setting shines in the background.

The six finalists patiently await the crowning.

Only one contestant could be Miss Trinity. Each contestant shows beauty.

THE PROM

The music and the memories of the 1982 Junior—Senior prom was a night long to be remembered. For some, this was the last big event before graduation and to others, it was the beginning of many more prom nights. It was a night to plan and a night to relax. It was all worth it when one saw how beautiful or handsome one's date was.

As the crowd slowly began arriving at the Top of the Mart, the excitement began building. The night was still young as the band, Prime Time, "revered". When the time softened, couples came together to dance arm in arm and to "escape" into their own little world for a few cherished moments.

No sooner had this magical night begun than the clock hands moved towards 12. May eighth became history and it was time to return to earth and to return home. On the way home, all sat back and reminisced about the wonderful time all had at the prom. Even though time slipped away quickly, all locked away special memories of that very special night.

A special thanks to the Juniors, the class of 1983. Also, the student body of Trinity would like to thank all junior teachers, especially Mrs. Aldridge.

Another year goes passing by Another Prom is here
To some this brings a joyous smile
To others, brings a tear
For four years you have tread a path
From dawn to setting sun
But now the path gets steeper
And the climb is just begun.
We're very glad to know you
We'll miss you when you've gone
And to the Class of '82
We dedicate our Prom.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Through determination, hard-work, great Senior leadership, patience, and a desire to never stop trying, the Lady Bulldogs "put it all together" to make the pieces fit for a winning season. With the guidance of its outstanding coach, Terry Allmon, the team's attitude toward the games founded a foundation for future teams. Leading the Bulldogs in "putting it all together" were the five Seniors: Debbie Brown, Jessica Hill, Karyn Kennedy, Karen Lucas, and Varonda Rorie. November 30, 1982 began the season with an opener against Southern Guilford. Although we were not the winners, the Bulldogs later won the next game against the Indians with a 40-39 decision. The first conference game brought victory number one for our Lady Bulldogs and was followed with seven more wins for a conference record of 8-8.

Regardless of the score, the team never gave up. They always strove for the best. Even if the score did not show in our favor, if the team had played well, fought for their school, and had shown good sportsmanship, the best had been accomplished and they had won in the opinions of the fans.

Next year with the returning juniors and sophomores, hopefully the season will be as prosperous as this past season has been. The people in the Archdale-Trinity community and all the students at Trinity High School greatly appreciate the dedication that every team member has given to Trinity High School.

JV BASKETBALL

The JV Boys Basketball team started the season with intensity, dedication, and determination. Tryouts were in the first week of November, and the season started in late November against S. Guilford. Even though the team lost its game, it came back with a 43-30 victory over Ledford.

The team did not do very well in the conference as they hoped. But it did well outside the conference with a sweet 62-37 victory over E. Davidson, two victories over Ledford, and a 58-56 victory over Lexington.

The team's leaders were sophomores Kevin Wright, Chris Mann, and Paul Walker, and freshmen Keith Parrish, Joey Hilburn, and Brian Troxel. Special thanks to the rest of the team members for their support and enthusiasm.

It was a long season for the JV basketball team but the team gave its best effort. The Trinhian staff would like to salute the team and Coach Allgood for their great effort this season.

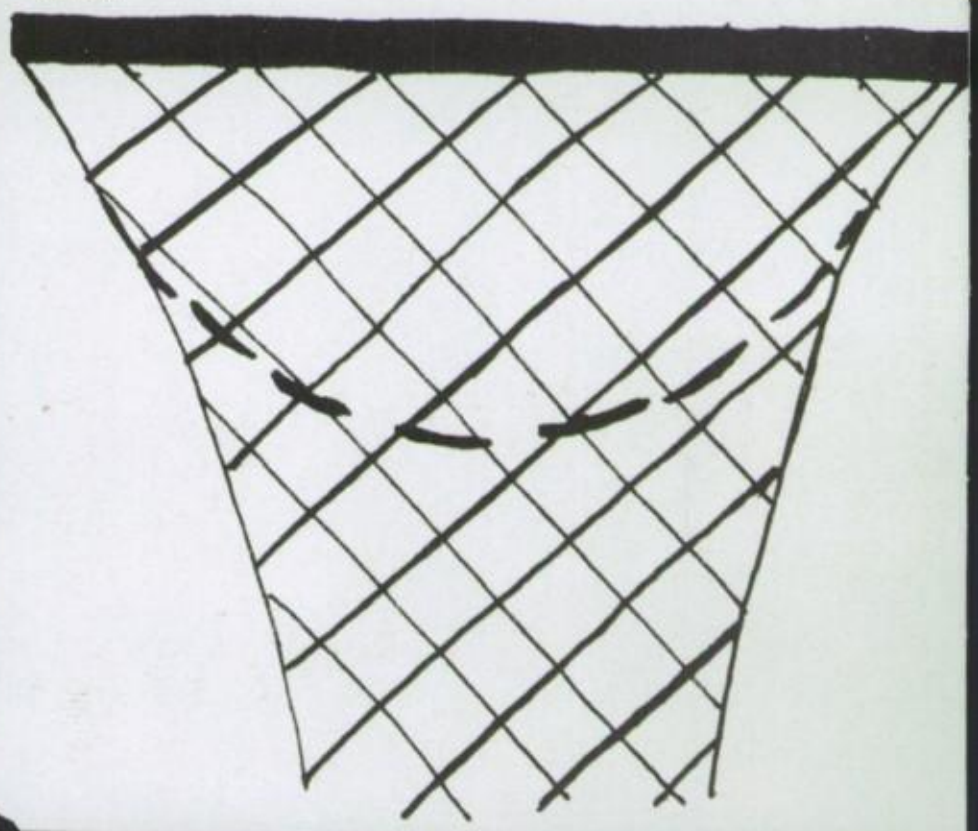
November 30 marked the beginning of a new season for the J.V. Girls Basketball team. New challenges were faced with courage, determination, and pride. This proved to be helpful in their season. From the first tip off until the last buzzer echoed through the gym, these girls fought many hard battles. Whether winning or losing, the pride of the Bulldogs never left them. Anita Andrews, Dee Dee Smith, Millie Rush and Cindy Miller led the main attack force with the eagerness and newness of their ideas along with the experience of returner Gail Earnhardt. Overall, the experiences provided to the girls will help them in sports in the years to come.



Despite the odds, Bulldogs always pull through!

The success of the Bulldogs on the baseball diamond surprised everyone . . . that is, everyone except the players and coaches. They knew they were good and set out to prove it. The team had a new pride in themselves. They had a new playing field, new uniforms, and new coaches, all of which gave the Batting Bulldogs a new incentive to win.

Head Coach Dirk Gurley and assistant John Spell worked the team hard from the very beginning. Coach Gurley worked on situation plays with pitchers and catchers before the season began so a head start would be achieved. The season finally came and the team was soon in gear with high hopes for a winning season. Those hopes were backed when the team learned that they were favored in the conference. The Bulldogs opened the season with victories over Southern Guilford and High Point Central. In the course of the season, the team won decisive victories over Lexington (9-4), West Rowan (8-2), and Thomasville (15-0). They were also tied for first place at one time.

After the last ball was thrown and the last out made, the Bulldogs had handed defeats to every team in the conference except Salisbury who went on to become conference champs. The Bulldogs finished a strong third behind Asheboro. Congratulations to the Bulldogs for a job well done and also a big thanks for the bringing of a winning tradition back to the Trinity area.

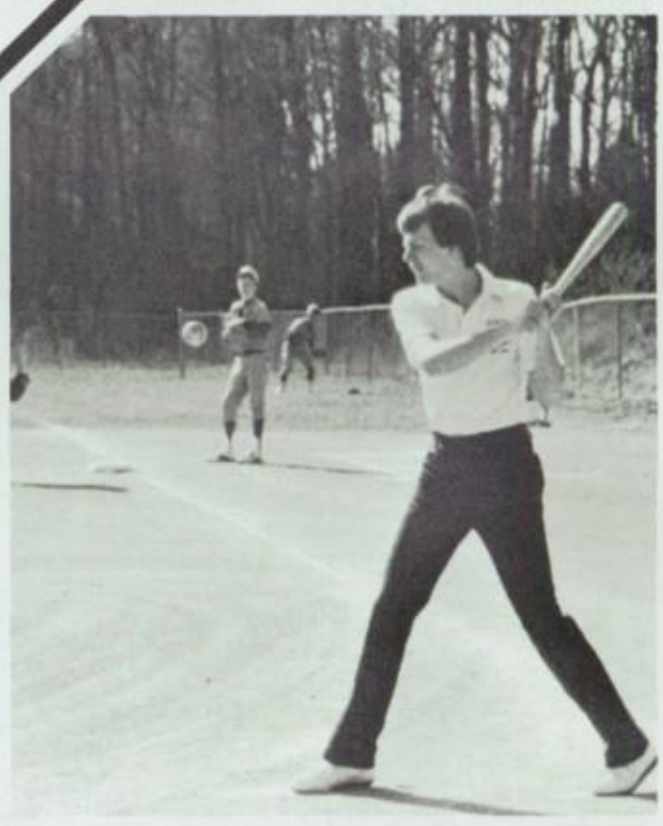
It was the year of the BULLDOGS! The 1982 Junior Varsity baseball team under third year coach Mr. Tim Allgood completed the season with nine wins and only two defeats. The season included single wins over East Davidson, Asheboro and S. Guilford. The J.V.'s also defeated archrivals Andrews and Central not once but twice. The J.V.'s had a successful year because of good defense, pitching, leadership and coaching. Mike Austin and Trey Moser provided the defense with key pitching. Not only did the Bulldogs have a strong defense, but they also had a strong offense. Ray Scism, who had the highest batting average of .400, lead the Bulldogs to their success. The success of the Bulldogs was not due to a few superstars. It was a team effort with Gene Hurley, Garreth Worrell, Kevin Wright, Chris Mann, Danny Gaddy, and Keith Beasley providing excellent leadership. The Bulldogs played very well and the Trinhian Staff would like to congratulate them on an excellent season!



The team warms up.

. . . varsity cheerleaders

Since cheerleading first originated, many changes have taken place which have modernized this sport. This year, for the first time at Trinity, sophomores were eligible to try out for the varsity squad. The 1982-83 varsity squad consisted of 1 senior, 5 juniors, and 3 sophomores. Before the season began in late August, these ladies began their work by serving the players drinks after their morning and evening practices. But the duties of the cheerleaders did not stop.

August 27 marked the beginning of a new football season as well as the beginning of a new cheering season. Promoting school spirit was one of their main goals and each Friday night they attempted this by spreading their spirit at both home and away games.

Throughout the season the cheerleaders prepared secret pal bags containing refreshments for the players at break.

November brought the beginning of basketball season and to the cheerleaders, Tuesday and Friday nights were dedicated to supporting the Bulldogs. The cheers and shouts continued, but this time echoing through the gym. Also with November came consecutive practices in order to prepare for the Eastern Regionals Competition held on December eleventh. Placing 1st runner up in this competition was honorable and it gave them an opportunity to compete in the Eastern Regionals Championship held in Williamsburg.

Success though, does not come without support and the Varsity Squad did not lack this. Their three sponsors were Mr. Hayes, Miss Richardson, and Mrs. McCall. They all worked together with great cooperation to help the girls achieve their goal for a successful season.

All in all, the Varsity Squad and its changes throughout the year proved to be a success. They achieved many goals that were set, proving that things do not have to stay with tradition to work.

BIG—BAD—SUPER—BAD!!!

The 1982-83 Junior Varsity Cheerleaders did a SUPER job putting together new and better cheers and routines for Trinity High School. This year they put a greater emphasis on pyramids, formations, and routines than ever before, and this showed in their fantastic demonstrations of school spirit.

The Junior Varsity Squad began practice the very first week of summer vacation of 1982, and many hours were put into learning a new dance routine and new cheers. Beginning in August, the Junior Varsity Squad helped the Varsity Cheerleaders serve drinks to the football teams twice a day. Many hours were spent by Miss Richardson coordinating this task.

In late August, both squads held a car wash—bake sale—yard sale at Perpetual Bank. With the help of many parents, enough money was raised to purchase new blue uniforms for the J.V. Squad.

In between football and basketball season, the squad worked on a three-minute routine for the Eastern Cheerleading Association Regionals in Rocky Mount, N.C. Even though the girls had very little time to practice because of their busy schedules, they prepared a fantastic routine, and finished second-runner up.

Trinity High continued to be very proud of their 1982-83 cheerleaders. The squad consisted of six freshmen: Renee Coley, Debbie Dykes, Vanessa Elliott, Misty McCracken, Gia Siebert, Stacy Thompson; two first year sophomores: Annette Neal, Karla Teague; and one returning sophomore, the captain of the Junior Varsity Squad, Debbie Simmons.

Without the guidance of the three advisors, T.E. (Blaze) Hayes, Linda McCall, and Sandra Richardson, the success of the J.V. Squad would have been very limited. The advisors have put in many hours guiding and training the cheerleaders, and the Trinhian Staff salutes them for this amazing dedication.

FOOTBALL FOOTBALL FOOTBALL FOOTBALL

August the second began a season of practices and games for the 1982 Varsity Football team. Each day until school started, they had one or two practices. There was great anticipation for a new improved season with a new coach, Coach David Rathburn.

Through Coach Rathburn's leadership and hard work, much more was accomplished than the scores of each game demonstrated. Not only did the team show great sportsmanship, but many players showed outstanding abilities. Bruce Norman was named to the All-Area team. He was very deserving of the honor. Craig Steele also proved to be an invaluable asset to the Bulldogs.

Each game brought the Bulldogs a little closer to gaining the skill necessary for a successful season. The Thomasville Bulldogs were given quite a run, as we took them into overtime.

The Trinity Bulldog fans were always very supportive as they would travel with them or fill the stands when there were home games. Every loyal Bulldog fan, whether family of the players, friends or students of Trinity High School, appreciates and is proud of the 1982 Varsity Football team and their devotion and determination.

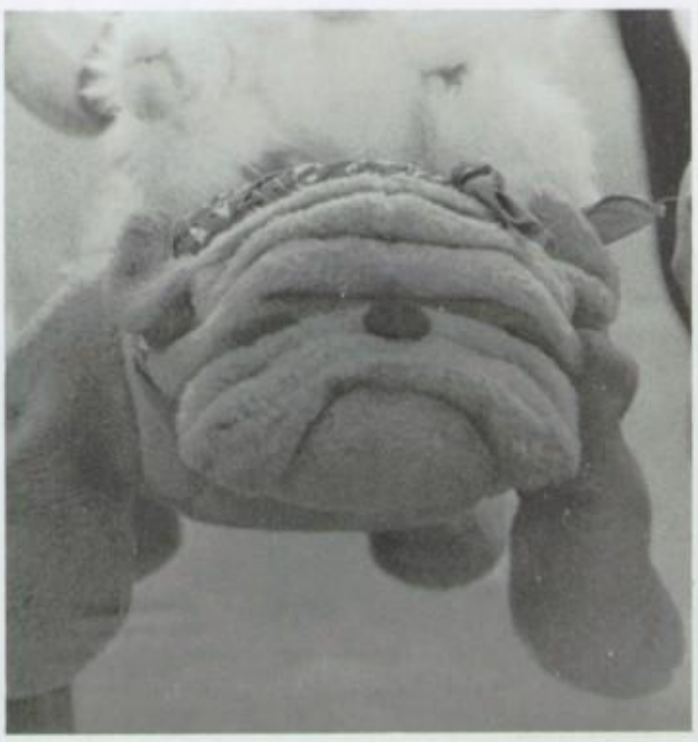
Momma don't let your babies grow up to be cowboys!

The 1982 Homecoming Week started off with a bang on Monday with Western Day. Tuesday was full of spirit since it was Blue/White Day and Stuffed Animal Day. Wednesday was quiet because of Hush Button Day. Greg Forrester won the competition with 32 collected Hush Buttons. It was also T-shirt Day. Students wore T-shirts from the farthest away place they had ever been. Thursday was a little wierd, thanks to Punk Rock Day. At break that day, the Falcon was buried in hopes of a victory Friday night. Crazy Hat Day was also on Thursday. Friday was BULLDOGS GO HOLLYWOOD! It was an immense success!

Hey look! I'm sexy!

Mitch and J.D. really know what punk is all about!



These stuffed animals have much spirit.

The pep rally was held at the stadium thanks to the gorgeous weather that prevailed. The winners in the float competition were the following: for the classes—Sophomore class, for the clubs—VICA. FBLA came in second with DECA running a close third.

The winners of the character competition came out in a tie. Beverly Peace, portraying Dolly Parton for the FBLA, and Angel Dumbloskie, portraying Mae West for the Keyettes, both tied for first place. The Spanish Club came in second with Tony Mizzi portraying Speedy Gonzales.

The B.O.S.S. Club's contest of Big Man On Campus resulted as Steve Davis, first, for the Senior Class, Steve Slate, second, for the Junior Class, and Greg Webb, third, for the FBLA.

This year the Juniors won the chain links competition. Various activities during the pep rally were won by different classes.

We wuv —RINITY!

The winning class float—Sophomores, class of 1985.

For the football players, we stand up and applaud.

Mae West, I mean (Angel Dumbloskie), is alive and well at Trinity.

The student body of Trinity High School excelled in their behavior for the entire Homecoming Week.

WHAT'S HAPPENING DURING HALF TIME

Families are reunited during Homecoming festivities.

Half-time began with the marvelous performance by our very own Trinity High School "Blue Crew".

The Homecoming court was announced after the band finished playing. The Freshman Representative was Vanessa Elliott, the Sophomore Representative was Kim Hall, the Junior Representative was Kim Morton, and the Senior Representative was Kim Ferguson. The 1982 Homecoming Queen was Donna Snyder, who was crowned by Dawn Stephenson, the 1981 Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming was a joy to all, and even though the Homecoming game was lost, everyone had fun.

The band's performance is greatly appreciated by everyone.

The peacefulness of the school at night is a sharp contrast to the Homecoming game.

J.V. Football
1982

Junior Varsity Football began in early August when players hit the field for some "real" fun in the sun. It did not take long for coaches Terry Allmon and Larry Walker to whip the team into tip top shape for the season opener. In the following weeks, the team worked hard, ran hard, and gave it their all to prepare for Thursday's game. Our Junior Varsity Bulldogs played with a lot of heart and spirit all season. Although the team finished with a record of 0-10, many of the games were lost by less than one touchdown. Special thanks go to Coaches Walker and Allmon and the rest of the team: M. Hicks, D. Weant, H. Patterson, G. Tuggle, M. Allen, G. Mastrogianakis, D. Webb, M. Slate, T. Steed, T. Patton, M. Byerly, M. Westmoreland, R. Beasley, H. Jarrett, E. Giles, B. Collett, T. McMahan, T. Timing and grace, poise and confidence, created a first cross-country team at THS. Having an overall record of 4-3, Trinity came in third in the conference. Only Asheboro and Thomasville produced better squads. Leaders for the Bulldogs were J. Stewart, who finished second in the conference and other top runners were C. Owens, D. Burkhalter.

A special thanks to the dedicated coach, J. Burchette and his team.

Spiking is the best offensive play as shown here by Karyn.

August 16, 1982 began a season of hard work, dedication, determination, and practice for the outstanding group of girls that made up the Trinity Girls Volleyball team. This year, all the time and effort the girls put into the season proved to pay off as they achieved the best season yet at Trinity.

The Lady Bulldogs finished 3rd in the NPC with an 8-4 record and an overall record of 8-7. The spiking attack was led by Seniors Karyn Kennedy, Karen Lucas, and Junior Kris Swigget, Senior Stephanie Bundy and Junior Cheryl Parris were leaders as the team setters.

The J.V. volleyball team got off to a late start so they only played two scheduled matches. This was the first season for the J.V.'s and it provided the girls with the understanding to help them with the Varsity next year.

RACKETEERS

If in question, stick your tongue out!

Tennis is the only game where love means nothing.

The most important part of tennis is its origin. The original tennis, or JEU DE PAUME ("palm of the hand game") was played as a pasttime by noble establishments in France, as early as the 13th century. Nurtured in France, tennis moved to Holland, England, and Scotland. Tennis games were reported to have been played for amusement by Queen Elizabeth I. "We are merely the stars' tennis balls, struck and bandied which way please them," as spoken by John Webster.

They worked hard, they practiced hard, and did a super job. The fifth year of Trinity High School's tennis team was completed with a fine record.

Go for it, Mark!

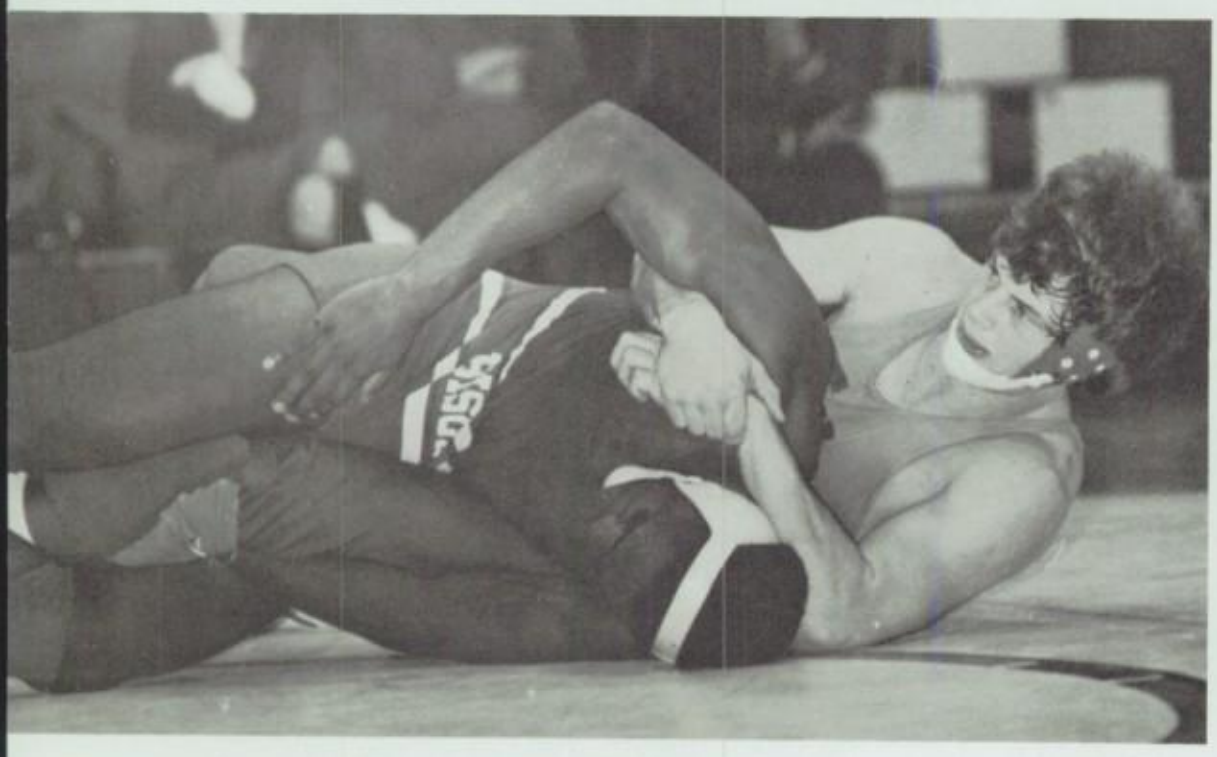
In November, wrestling season began, and so did the long hours of work and preparation for the first varsity wrestling match.

The wrestler's training consisted of running cross-country (two miles) every day before practice.

The wrestlers' practiced hard and proved that they had what it takes to be a Trinity Bulldog WRESTLER.

"The Wonderful World of Trinity" was shown by the varsity wrestler's record. Even though the season started out rough with the first two matches being defeats, the wrestlers proved again and again that they could wrestle their best under tremendous pressure.

Congratulations for a winning season!



The final score: 20 to 9 major decision by Bruce Norman over HPC.

Even though little attention was given to the Junior Varsity Wrestling team, it showed its maturity by practicing with the Varsity and also by running cross-country, or two-miles, every day before practice.

The J.V. record was not the best it hoped for, but the team's maturity developed through the year.

"The Wonderful World of Trinity" was seen through the Junior Varsity Wrestling team's sportsmanship at all matches and its support of the Varsity team.

The J.V. team proved that it could handle any challenge throughout the year.

"Red is up. Two reversal green, one escape red, two takedown green. Caution red." These were words that not many people understand, but they were everyday words for a Trinity High School Grapplerette. The grapplerettes were expected to know how to keep the score, flip cards, and run the clock for every match. They also reported the scores to the local newspapers.

The grapplerettes not only helped encourage the wrestlers on to victory, but they also ran the Trinity Invitational Tournament.

Being a grapplerette took a lot of patience and endurance since they had to deal with unruly coaches and wrestlers, and furious referees.

"The Wonderful World of Trinity" was shown by each grapplerette's perfect behavior at all wrestling matches.

Christy VonCannon and Wendy Shirley encourage the wrestlers on to victory.

Tina Green and Toni Burchette know how to keep the match under control.

The antics of the 1981-82 Crazy Olympics may never be topped. As the student body assembled in the gym, the tension built. The competing representatives of each class mingled together in apparent anticipation. The time drew nearer and the participants began to squirm. Suddenly! from the locker room, a stream of skirt clad young men wearing pom-poms began barking cheers! Mark Dobbins was in the lead with J.D. Peace, Chris Mann and others bringing up the rear. The next hour and a half was filled with the obstacle course, blind-folded, shoot the hoop, the orange tango, and the now world famous chocolate cream pie eating contest, featuring Scott Girssom, Darron Staton, Scott Gullege and Trey Moser! This year turned out great and next year will be even greater because no one is a loser in the wild-and-crazy olympics!!

The Administration Department

• • • • •

Under the administration of Mr. Dennis Farlow; principal, Mr. Larry Morgan; assistant principal, and Doctor Saunders; assistant principal, Trinity High School was one of the best schools in the surrounding area during the 1982-83 school year. Taking time to care was a quality not to be forgotten by these three men. It was them who made sure Trinity High School was operating properly for the benefit of the students' education. Without a doubt, these three men deserve respect and recognition for their successful efforts in making Trinity a better place for all.

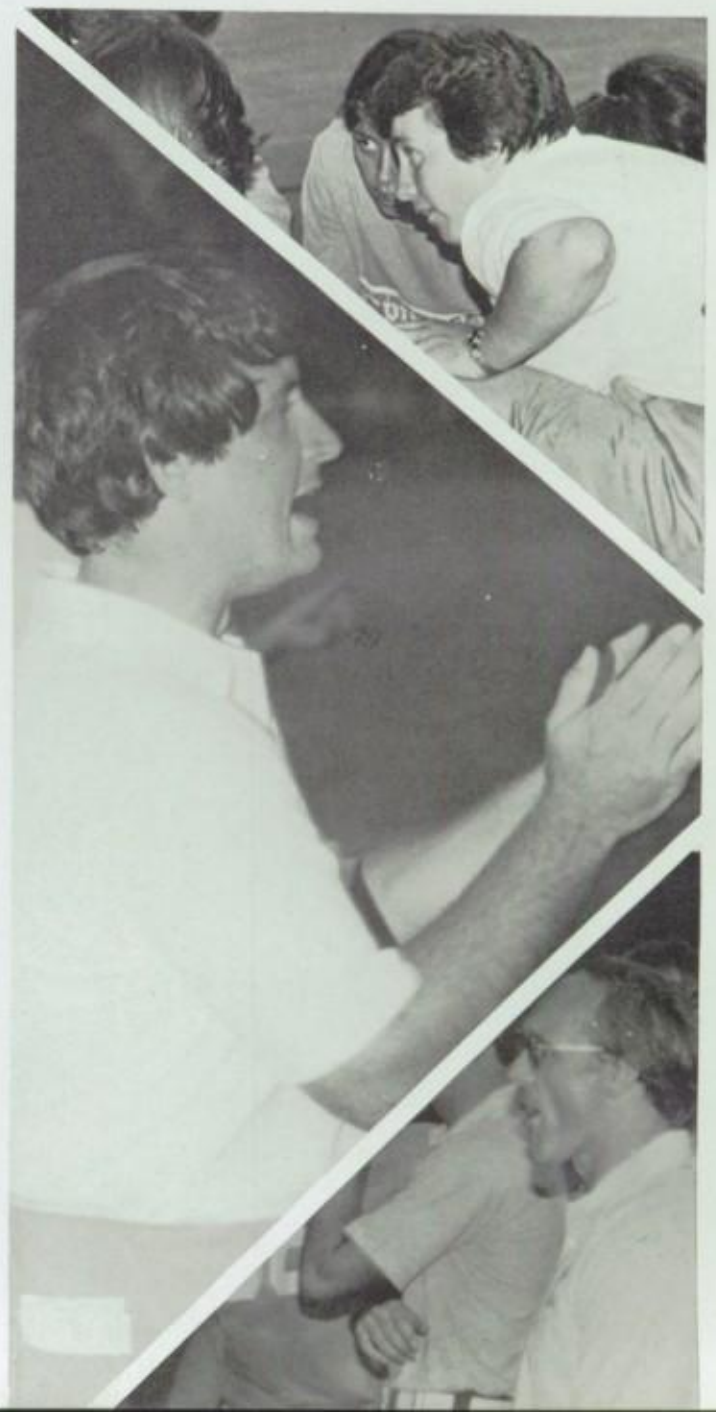
Physical Education Department

Dressing out, running laps, sweating, and those stuffy locker rooms were all factors reminding us of our physical education classes. Times spent on the gym floor or outdoors were ones of enjoyment though. This we owe to the physical education staff who put together a program intended to teach students how to work together as a team. Much time was spent working with the students—demonstrating and helping them by showing them proper skills. With no "sweat", it was easy to see why the Physical Education Department STOOD OUT in 1983!



Cafeteria Workers

The cafeteria workers at Trinity High School had an extremely hard job this year. Cooking for the entire student body was "fulfilling." Their kindness and generosity created a pleasant atmosphere in the cafeteria.

We never really recognize the hard work they experienced preparing our food everyday.

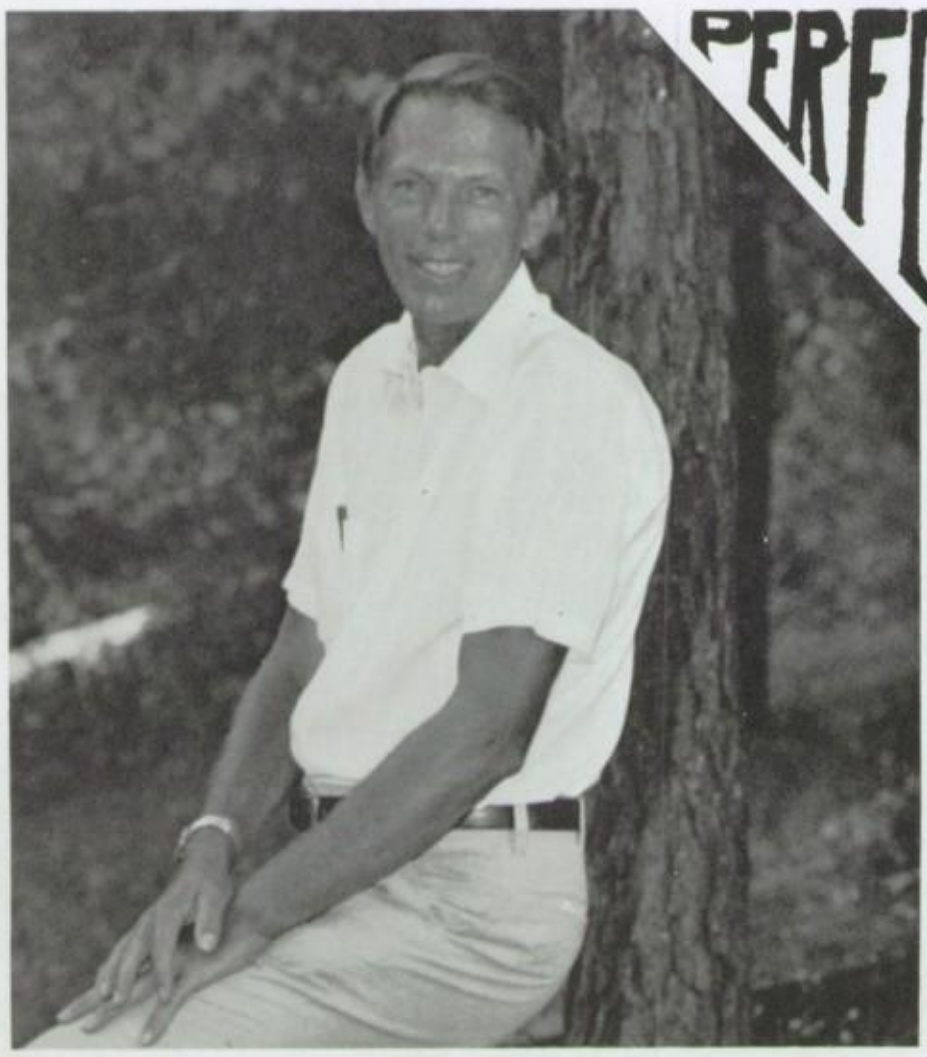
Mr. Lynn Small

CULTURAL

The Art Department offered a variety of different projects this year. Projects included calligraphy, clay, weaving, pointallism, pop art and many other things. None of these projects would have been possible without a fine and understanding treacher such as Ms. ShugArt.

Anyone who walked through the Theater building would be blessed with the sounds of a piano and a heavenly choir. Mrs. Burley, the chorus teacher, a very talented teacher was in charge of the choral department.



PERFORMING

The band was directed by a super teacher, Mr. Cronham. He led the marching band during the long summer mornings and taught them in class during the school year. Mr. Cronham deserves a lot of recognition and thanks for his dedication to Trinity High School.

Mr. Braswell spent many hours with both the concert band and the marching band. THS students took great pride in his work and dedication.

Mr. Humphrey and Mr. King were our instructors for Driver's Education. They taught students the ins and outs of maneuvering a car on the highways and byways.

The Guidance Department

Beverly Carrigan has the responsibility of guiding and counseling the tenth grade students, as well as half of the senior class at Trinity High.

Linda Kennerly is the guidance counselor for the eleventh grade students, as well as those students taking administrative courses at Trinity.

Pat Mills is responsible for the Freshmen at Trinity High, as well as half of the senior class.

Patsy Robbins is one of Trinity's finest guidance assistants.

The 1982-83 Trinity High School Guidance Counselors did a fantastic job guiding and counseling the students of T.H.S. this past year. Whenever a student had any problems whether it be a confusing schedule card, a 'D' in chemistry, an unsure future, or low SAT scores, he knew he could find the answer in the guidance department. A confused student could gain assistance and answers to his problems from any one of the beautiful women in the guidance department. These miracle workers are: Linda Kennerly, Beverly Carrigan, and Pat Mills, along with their right hand women, Patsy Robbins and Rachel Heilig. Although each guidance counselor is assigned specific grades to assist, each is available to help any student in any grade. Without the aid of these five wonderful women, many a Trinity High School student would be without a promising future. The Trinhian Staff commends the Guidance counselors and Assistants for the stupendous job they have done!

Rachel Heilig is a "jack-of-all-trades"—a wonderful teacher aid, as well as a guidance assistant.

History Department

From the rampages of the ancient Ice Age to the events marking peoples lives—Vietnam, ERA, Sky Lab—Trinity High School teachers have sought to make them come alive. Because of their efforts, students understand history and its importance in their everyday lives. Just like the EPCOT Center represents the promise of tomorrow, Trinity history teachers have brought students the lessons of yesterday. These interpreters of the past and present are Miss Beverly Crotts, Mr. Edward Hayes, Mr. Mike Steed, Miss Mary Smith, and Mr. Paul Barnes.

Each year at Trinity High School, the Vocational teachers display qualities such as patience, guidance and concern for the student body. They have helped prepare the students for the real world outside of Trinity by giving them on the job experiences with different occupations.

TRINHIAN OFFICERS

As the 1982-83 school year draws to a close, only this yearbook filled with familiar faces and events can capture and hold the memories of a great year at Trinity High. The hours of thought and preparation of each page is evident throughout this annual.

Along with an annual, the ending of a school year brings graduation. For the 1983 graduating seniors, we wish you the best of luck and we hope the 1983 Trinhian will help you remember your best year—your senior year at Trinity High. Being editors this year has been an unforgettable experience for us. It has also been a tremendous responsibility which meant much hard work and many sacrifices. No one knows the work put into this book unless he has experienced being on the staff. Many thanks go to each member of the staff who gave of himself for the 1983 Trinhian. Also we owe a great deal of recognition to the Business Editor, Joe Armentrout and the secretary, Sharon Lambeth. They have helped us tremendously and we could not have asked for two finer people to work with. Blaze Hayes also deserves much praise for guiding us through this year with patience and greatly appreciated advice.

We hope you treasure this book as much as we treasured making it for you!

Lisa,
You are a very sweet and special girl, I really will miss you next year. I wish you all the happiness you deserve. Come and visit us.
Love
Mrs. Reardon

As Business Editor and Secretary, we hope that the student body, faculty, and staff members hold this annual as close in their hearts as we do.

Words cannot express the love and joy and pain we have put into this annual. Just as much as we care for the annual itself, we also care for the wonderful people in it. The people are, "The Wonderful World of Trinity."

From the days of summer spent choosing the cover, to the afternoons of sending out bills, to the actual planning and laying out of the pages and special features, every moment was worth it. Hours of brain-racking work were spent trying not to copy designs from the year before.

A great deal of love and respect, for Blaze Hayes and Bob Phillips, our advisors; Cathy Spencer, our editor; and Kay Wilson, our associate editor, is felt by each member of the staff.

We hope with all our hearts that each page you turn in this, your Sen-Senior, Junior, Sophomore, or Freshman annual, reminds you of something sunny, cheerful, and lasting, and something you will hold in your heart and cherish always.

ADventure Land

ADS are a very important part of the Trinhian. Without the donations and support of the "wonderful" community of Trinity, the Trinhian could not survive. This year the staff has put a Walt Disney Character in motion on the top, right corners of odd numbered pages. This way, the ads are a little more interesting and possibly a little fun too. Also added to each ad is a letter in one corner to distinguish it as pointed out below.

Lisa, well what can I say, you've been like a sister to me. I will always remember the High School days. You are a very special, and dear person to me. I hope the years ahead are kind to you. Please never forget me. Please be careful with too much alcohol, and drugs. I worry. If you ever have any problems or just wish to talk, please don't hesitate to call me at 425-0593. Love always,

Kenny

P.S. You owe me a date!

Lisa,
We've had some really wild and crazy years here at Trinity. Too bad they're ending when we're just getting started. Lisa, stay sweet as always and hope to see you this summer. So we can party handy.

ode to the class of '83 at last: the opened door, the swinging white gate, the grass on the other side . . .

at last: the graduating blues, the parents and friends awaiting your final procession at this special ceremony . . .

at last: that mature pain, that unreal laugh . . .

yet: here it is, what you have worked for, looking back over your lives you count twelve years in school, all that time measured by homework, friends, teachers, a thousand things . . .

now it's over . . .

so, it's time to pack your bags and head the other way . . .

say: "goodbye trinity; i won't forget you in a hurry but i haven't time for you now; i graduated; that puts you out of the running" . . .

and say "so-long" to the ballgames and the parties, the homecomings, and the proms, the person you respected most and the one you didn't at all, and toss dozens of faces from your life because it hurts to remember; but! i'm sorry, i'm sure it's just not as easy as that . . .

a long time ago in your early life you set a pattern of what you'd do and how you'd go about it . . .

well you've followed that plan, if you've come this far . . .

and as you grasp these things—these friends, this happiness, these achievements—may you look back, into the past, examining the aspects of trinity that rendered service: and planted within your own private gardens the cultivated buds of maturity . . .

and this is the culminations of the years . . .
it's also the culmination of your emotions . . .
here at trinity you've found time enough for your hope, your anxiety, your lineliness, your joy, your companionship, and now, your fulfillment . . .
only . . . what has been fulfilled?

i suspect your own heart has; and your mind . . .
i guess a lot of things . . .
mostly, you're on your own, you've got something to prove, there's a lot further to go from here . . .

but . . . you've come a long way, too . . .
your path is open . . .

LISA,

We've been through so much I just don't know where to begin. All of the nights that we went "off" and had great times. Like the night we went to the Midway Game Room. That was a "trip". Even though we are graduating I don't want our friendship to slack off. I still want to go off ATLEAST once in awhile. We really had some good times even at the (OLD HOUSE THS.) Like going out to eat just about everyday. Remember our NATURE HIKE! That was one day that I'll never forget. Our BIG SENIOR WEEK" was pretty good too, especially STUDENT APPRECIATION DAY!! You are my BEST friend in this whole wide world. We've got so much in common. I'll never forget you, not even when I'm MARRIED and have babies of my own. I know that I've got Billy but I still couldn't make it without you! You've helped me so many times & I hope that I've helped you too.

Sista, I have enjoyed our hours years of friendship. I'm miss you but I know you to be happy being with your hope that you succeed at your
I know that I don't know but I do know that you and he loves you the best always!!
